his first group of bible studies is, in fact, the heart and soul of our whole outreach work. Without these, the goal of the exercise would become pointless, just another religious exercise, without real purpose, because, unless you and I focus our whole attention, our faith and our trust on, and in, Jesus Christ, the Word of God become man, then we've not come to any real understanding of who he is, or the truth of his words in Jh.14:6 when he said of himself, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, no one comes to the Father (God Almighty) but by me." And again, "There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven, given among men, by which we must be saved." Acts 4:12
