Most, if not all of us, hold our RIGHT OF CHOICE as a very precious possession, and are aware that in much of today's world, people have very little, if any choice, especially about their future. Even for us, in what we call 'the free world', it would seem in many ways we are free to do mostly what we're told.

read more...