

"Whether you eat or drink, or whatever else you do, do all to the glory of God, giving no offense to Jew, or Greek, or to the church of God."

Sadly, we live in a time where individual rights are placed above the good of the majority. This ungodly way of thinking is as true within families as it is in society, and now it seems to have spread its tentacles into the churches also. The old godly principle of willingly pouring ourselves out for one another, {Isaiah 58:10} and of considering others as better than ourselves, {"Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others as better than yourselves."} has been replaced with our fleshly thinking that we are the centre of the universe. How long are we going to allow ourselves to be controlled by the values of this world, and its wisdom?
