There was a song around many years ago, which, at the time, I didn't really appreciate. Even now I'm not too sure if I've gotten the words right. What sticks in my mind though, is the passage that went something like this:

Count your blessings,

Name them one by one,

And it will surprise you what the Lord has done!!

For those of us who have truly known this great Lord for some time, it must surely be easy to identify with those words. And to help in some small way, for me at least, he has given me the following tracts, which I'm sure he'll add to, as time goes by.

I can only hope that they will be a blessing to you also, by bringing to mind his amazing goodness to you personally.
