

Questions

Written by Administrator
Saturday, 29 May 2010 10:28 -

It seems to Terri and I that people can have any number of reasons for asking questions. But the important ones, in so far as the spiritual goes, are firstly, those which seek God's truth, secondly, those which seek a truth that will suit our own way of thinking, and thirdly, those which seek other people's views, so as to find support for our own. Which category is yours?