In the spiritual realm, the Christian marriage relationship, as our God intended it to be, is absolutely vital for us to have any real appreciation of what our relationship with God is meant to be like.